

Dr. Catherine Goffreda Bailey
Clinical Vice President
Appalachian Life Counseling Center, LLC

Originally from Spencer, West Virginia, Dr. Bailey is a Licensed Psychologist and an Adjunct Professor of School Psychology at Marshall University. Dr. Bailey earned her Ph.D. and M.Ed. in School Psychology from The Pennsylvania State University, as well as her B.A. in Psychology from West Virginia University.

Dr. Bailey previously served at the WV Autism Training Center at Marshall University and is a Nationally Certified School Psychologist. Her research has been published in School Psychology Review, Psychology in the Schools, and The Physical Educator.

Dr. Bailey's professional interests include psychoeducational assessment, mental wellness for first responders, and supporting neurodivergence throughout the lifespan.

